

Attendee Terms & Conditions

By receiving a registration to attend the annual Alabama Association for Financial Professionals (“AAFP”) Summit, the holder of the registration (the “Attendee”) automatically agrees to the terms and conditions set forth below (the “Terms and Conditions”). These Terms and Conditions apply to each attendee registered for the Summit. Any member, visitor, student, faculty or speaker who is present at the Summit is considered an attendee.

Photography & Filming. Photographs, audio, and video may be captured during the Summit. Attendee hereby grants the AAFP permission to:

- (a) Record their likeness and voice on a video, audio, photographic, digital, electronic or any other medium.
- (b) Use their name in connection with these recordings.
- (c) Use, reproduce, exhibit or distribute in any medium (e.g. print publications, social media, Internet/WWW) these recordings for any purpose that the AAFP, and those acting pursuant to its authority, deems appropriate, including promotional or advertising efforts.

Attendee waives his/her right to inspect or approve the media, including written copy that may be created and appear in connection therewith. Attendee agrees that AAFP owns the copyright in these media and attendee waives any claims based on usage of the media or the works derived therefrom. Attendee releases the AAFP from liability for any violation of any personal or proprietary right attendee may have in connection with such use. Attendee understands that all such recordings, in whatever medium, shall remain the property of the AAFP.

Payment. All payments must be received in full prior to participating in the AAFP Summit.

Refund Policy for Summit Registrations. All Summit registration sales are final and nonrefundable. A registration may not be transferred to another individual. For more information about registration transfers, please email president@alabamaafp.org.

Credits. Attendee should retain the AAFP Summit agenda, highlighting the sessions attended, in the event Attendee is audited by certification body. A confirmation of AAFP Summit registration is not sufficient proof of sessions attended according to guidelines set forth by the national Association for Financial Professionals (“AFP”). CTPs/CCMs and FPAs are responsible for reporting credits directly to AFP at the end of the recertification cycle. CPEs are responsible for reporting credits directly to the Alabama State Board of Public Accountancy. Samford Students are responsible for reporting their attendance to the Samford School of Business for Professional Development credits. The AAFP is not responsible for reporting your attendance to the certification bodies. Electronic versions of the approved credits as well as attendance registers are maintained on the AAFP website (www.AlabamaAFP.org). Attendees must retain documentation of their attendance for a period of two years after the end of their cycle in the event of an audit.

Indemnity + non-liability. Attendee agrees that AAFP, its associates, employees, successors, licensees, and assigns, together with all AAFP Summit event locations, and their officers, employees, and agents (hereafter individually and collectively referred to for purposes of this Indemnity + non-liability section as “AAFP”) shall not be liable for any loss or damage of any kind arising from acts or omissions of the Attendee.
